

About Dennis R Sumlin

Dennis R Sumlin is a numerologist and a Law Of Attraction (LOA) specialist, with a focus on confidence, relationships and intimacy. Using the vibrations present on your birthday, Dennis assists you in building self-esteem, finding compatible partners and having a fulfilling sex life. Dennis has a Life Coach certification from Erickson College International, and has been working with numerology, astrology, and the metaphysical sciences for over 20 years. He founded Core Confidence Life, the business name for his practice and the name of his podcast.

From an early age, Dennis was aware of the dynamics of energy and vibration but did not know how it worked. He noticed how certain things he would say or think seemed to manifest in his reality. Most of us have this happen but many rarely think much of it and dismiss it as a coincidence. He started to get further into the idea of energy and spirit power after coming across astrology, and very soon after, numerology.

Coaching Programs

Through his main program Authentic Master Program (AMP), Dennis, using the client's birthday info, helps them understand their unique potential, puts them on the road to increased confidence and helps them unlock their natural attraction and manifestation abilities.
